Dear Ed

I am writing to seek your support at the forthcoming Surrey County Council election and to explain why I believe I am the best local choice to represent you.

I have lived in South Staines since 1985. As a Borough Councillor for Staines South I have fought tirelessly for residents on a wide range of issues. I continue to honour a pledge to communicate with all residents by way of a quarterly newsletter keeping you in touch with what is going on. I am a retired Transport Manager with significant financial experience making me well qualified for the role and to protect your interests.

The Conservatives have ruled Surrey for decades. In this time Spelthorne has been the poor relation and they have taken you and your vote for granted. They have fallen well short of expectations on infrastructure in areas such as roads and education. It is vital these services are protected. With their track record can you trust the Conservatives to do this?

The latest Conservative idea is to abolish Spelthorne, and replacing it with one huge Council based in Reigate covering a population 1.2m people. Already, Surrey Council, in the eyes of Spelthorne residents, is considered remote and would be even more so with headquarters in far away in Reigate. This is not in the interests of our Residents but our current County Councillors have failed to speak out against this plan. Any change should maximise efficiency whilst retaining local accountability and only happen if endorsed by residents.

In this election you have the chance to vote for desperately needed change, someone who cares about their community and with a track record of standing up for local people and their interests

Yours sincerely

Chris
